

More Photos From Raleigh

Here you will see some more photos of folks enjoying themselves at the annual meeting held last October in Raleigh, North Carolina. The photos were provided by the association photographers, Janice and John Smith, #0152, members, AAFA Hall of Fame.

Mary Alford Intellini won a fancy birdhouse made by Elroy Alford.

Betty Heazel made good use of the lovely afghan that she won as a raffle prize made by Marie Bateman. Also shown are her husband Mike Heazel (left) and Gil Alford.

Gil and Mary Alford show off a beautiful pillow that they won as a raffle prize.

Mary V. Alford also won a very nice birdhouse made by Elroy Alford.

Laura Tuffnell (left) and Elena Hruska pose for a picture before the dinner on Saturday night. Laura is the granddaughter of Frieda Shepherd, and Elena is the granddaughter of Sally and Dick Stower.

Tom Rockhold and Mary Kaye Robinson worked on family research on Saturday afternoon. Tom is a descendant of James born 1847 in North Carolina.

Jesse Alford attended his first AAFA meeting. He is a descendant of Archibald Alford born 1816 in North Carolina.

Earline Alford presented a pair of pillowcases that she had embroidered to newlyweds Linda and Roy Alford of Texas.

President Max Alford presented a certificate of appreciation to Lynn Shelley as out-going Vice-President.
