

1983 Texas Alford Directory

In 1983 Gil Alford purchased a copy of the Alford Family Heritage Book published by Beatrice Bayley which turned out to be one of the names used by Halberts a company alleged to be of questionable repute. The report is that they were eventually put out of business by the combined efforts of the U.S. Postal Service, The National Genealogical Society and The Federation of Genealogical Societies. Therefore no effort was made to reach someone to obtain permission to use, but only seven pages of so many seem like fair use any way. It was a large book with many pages some of them with the names and addresses of Alford's living in the United States. Gil knew exactly what he was buying and thought the cost was worth the thousands of Alford's he would add to his collection.

He used the addresses extensively as he began to build his data base of living American Alford's. Similar books were used later to grow the AAFA membership. The following are seven pages, listing the Texas Alford addresses, of the many pages included in the book. The pages had been marked up through use but efforts were made to clean them up.

Shown below is a copy of the certificate that was included in the book. The AAFA imprint denotes that Gil donated the book to AAFA after it was created.
