 Baptized: in:
 Died: Feb 19 1854 in: Fairfield Co., OH
 Buried: in: Fairfield Co., OH
 Other: in:
 Ref: Occupation: Farmer
 Father:
 Mother:

Tombstone. Buried near Rushville

1820 OH Fairfield Co. He was probably the person extracted from the census as Fuldry Alford in Richson Township. He was age 26-44, there was no wife and there was one son and two daughters that match the 1830 tabulation. In 1820 it was 10001-20000. Was the absence of a wife an error in the census?

1830 OH Fairfield Co. He was listed as Fielding Alfred. He and his wife were age 40-49. The tabulation was 2110001-0120001.

1840 OH Fairfield Co. He appears in Richland township as Phelding Alfred

1850 OH Fairfield Co. He was age 63, born VA farmer with $2,000 property Wife Mary was 64 born in Ireland. Two children, John 23 and Henry 20 were both born in Ohio.

Fielding entered the War of 1812 as a private in Capt. Matthew Rogers' Co. of Pa. Militia. In August of 1813 he responded to a call from O. H. Perry, Commodore of the Fleet on Lake Erie. He served on Perry's ship, the LAWRENCE. Fielding's first son, ROBERT PERRY ALFORD was named for Commodore Perry.

"I just had the opportunity to spend one day in Ohio and I came back with the tombstone inscription for my FIELDING ALFORD. (Cemetery records for the old graves were lost long ago, according to those in charge.) FIELDING ALFORD d. Feb. 19, 1854 66 yrs. 10 mos. 27 days. According to my calculations that would put his date of birth on March 23, 1787. . ." (Kay Ann Feiden 2/10/1985)
