

Husband: Lodwick Alford #3085 died at age: 90

Born: about 1710 in: New Kent Co., VA
 Baptized: in:
 Died: 1800 in: Franklin Co., NC
 Buried: in:
 Other: in:
 Ref: LOD710VA Occupation:
 Father: James Alford #29
 Mother: Wife is Unknown #30

His birth date is estimated. His presence is proved by several entries in the St. Peter's Parish Register, New Kent County, VA. His birth in VA is assumed.

There has long been a family tradition- reinforced by some DAR records- that Lodwick married a Rebecca Ferrell. Nothing has been found to support this idea. A North Carolina court record lists his wife as Sarah and some believe he married, Sarah the widow of his brother Goodrich. It appears that the daughters of Goodrich were mentioned in Lodwick's will. There is nothing to indicate the mother of any of the children other than William, Elizabeth and Jacob whose births are recorded in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent County, VA.

There is a will and court records to support the death of a Lodwick in Franklin County at about this time. A copy of the will is available on the website. Select him from the list at www.alfordassociation.org/will.html

This Lodwick is one of the most controversial ancestors we Alford have. Look for frequent updates on this one as we can get them coordinated.

There are some in the family who believe Elizabeth was a Cade. If that proves to be the case then her parents were Robert Cade and Susanna Crump. The records do prove that such a person was available for the marriage and from all indications the Alford and Cades were very close. See also the record on Sussana Cade, the younger sister of Elizabeth, and the next supposed wife of Lodwick.

There are some who think Susanna was a Hartley but there is no evidence to support the idea. Others think she was a Cade with Lodwick turning to his late wife, Elizabeth Cade's, sister to help with the raising of young William Alford. See the comments about sister Elizabeth Cade the supposed previous wife of Lodwick.
