

DRAFT - Three Generations - DRAFT
Some of the Known Descendants of John Alford who died 1748 VA

[This is a draft copy of a work in progress. It is known to be incomplete and probably contains some error. Use it only as a clue as to where to search for more reliable information. This posting was made in an effort to learn more about the known DNA connection between this branch and that of the William Alford b. 1804 in VA, supposedly of Montgomery Co., VA who married Elizabeth Penner of Montgomery Co. VA, about 1821 in Kentucky. A similar genealogy is being posted here for that branch of the Alford family.]

1. John Alford #66 b. 1696, m. Mary _____ #67, d. after 1758, Frederick Co., VA ??. John died 1748, Frederick Co., VA.

Nothing is really KNOWN about John's birth date or place. While he died in Frederick County he was probably present in Orange County from which Frederick was made in 1735. He made his will Nov 13, 1748 and it was admitted to probate January 4, 1748 so he died within that period of less than 60 days.

He was first found in Orange Co., VA in 1735. Frederick Co. was formed from Orange and Augusta in 1738. __ Lynn Shelley email 8/24/99

He was fairly young when he died because all of his children were under 19 and the wording of the will suggested the wife might remarry.

The late Mrs. Tressie Bowman reported that he was the son of John Alford and Elizabeth. That would be the John who died 1702 in Dorchester County, Maryland, whose will dated October 20, 1702 was probated November 11, 1702 and is filed in Box 1, Folder 6 Dorchester/Carolina Co., MD wills-1702. Other children of John and Elizabeth Alford were Matthais and Joseph.

John and Matthias were the executor's of the older John Alford's will. Son John is, according to Mrs. Bowman, supposed to have married Mary Dawson 1717 in Dorchester County, MD. [later proved that Mary Dawson married Edward Alford.] Matthias married Celeninor Godward and Joseph married 1735 Margaret Richardson.

Mike Heazel, AAFA #0664 has a theory that would make the subject the probable grandson of this John & Elizabeth Alford. AAFA member Joe Alford, #1058 has a similar theory- showing the subject to be the son of Matthais Alford who was the son of John & Elizabeth. Perhaps continued research will reveal evidence needed to prove a connection.

If and when any credibility can be proven to this connection the data will be taken out of this note form and the Alford's entered as subjects in the Genealogy.

Lynn Shelley, AAFA research leader, gives the following reasons for placing John as the first child: (1) He is listed first in the will. (2) He got 2 horses, 1 Negro and the still which is to help support his mother, others only got 1 horse (except Priscilla). (3) John gets inheritance at age 19 or marriage of mother; others get theirs only at their marriage. (4) At marriage of mother, John becomes responsible for siblings' inheritance. (5) John's age - not yet 19 - only one mentioned. If others were older, wouldn't they support mother, be executors, etc. (6) 1754 Frederick County Deed indicates John is acting on behalf of siblings, William and Acquilla, who it is assumed were still underage. (7) William votes in Frederick County, in 1761 but not in 1758- had he just turned 21- or was he just then a landowner?

Wythe County December Court 1805 This the last Will and Testament of Thomas Alford Deceased was proven in Court by the oaths of Thomas Boyd, Humphrey Ellis and Henry Christly, Witnesses thereto and the same is ordered to be Recorded. Test. John P. Matthews D. C.

This Will is recorded in Wythe County, Virginia in Will Book No. 1, Page 338. Their children have traditionally been shown as born in Wythe County. That county was not formed until 1789/90. It came from Montgomery 1777, it from Fincastle 1772. it from Botetourt 1770 and it from Augusta which was created 1738/45.

Lynn Shelley: He got a VA Land Grant in 1762 in Ahmerst Co., VA and sold it in 1768 at which time Elizabeth was named as his wife and William was a witness.

Ruth Moran shows his death as Nov/Dec 1805. He wrote his will November 14, 1805 and probably died within the month after writing the will, as probate occurred in Dec. 1805 - unless a smudge is obscuring a "1806."

[Note that the Jewell Gallagher sketch listed him only as a possible son of John Alford.- She lacked proof also.]

Elizabeth: Some think Field was her surname. Need proof or correct data. There is no proof of when she died, but she was alive when Thomas wrote his will, Nov 14, 1805. The 1805/06 used could be date no longer listed on tax records. She might have been living with son Moses.

"The four sons of John Alford and Elloner Hodge Alford, all came to what was then Gibson County, Indiana, and later lived in Davies County, Indiana. The town of Alfordsville was named for James Alford, and he was known as Captain Alford." William A. Alford THE FAMILY OF ALFORD (Independence, KS: N. pub, 1941-42) p. 44. As evidenced by the above some accounts do not include "Landy" as a son.

Ruth Moran shows his birth as between June 1 and Oct. 27, 1768. Born 1768-1769 according to Montgomery County, tax rolls. His whereabouts are unknown after 1829. Some think he died in Kentucky and others, at least a Clara V. Alford, says Missouri. Some earlier accounts showed wives Miss Hays and Miss Smith but nothing has been found to support them so they are no longer listed.

Tax list 1787 shows him born 1766-1771.

It was not him who was in the Virginia Sea Service in the Revolutionary War he was likely born before 1776. It must be another Thomas, who based on the 1830 census was born 1750-60. It would have been he who married Susannah Dillard Kennedy. At this time we don't know where to put Thomas 2 and Susannah.

The following is from an email sent by David Howard (AAFA 0988) to Gil Alford, Dec. 4, 1997. "I do not believe that Thomas Alford who married Frances Crisp died in VA. Nor do I think he married Susannah Dillard. That must have been another Thomas Alford. Thomas & Frances (Crisp) Alford had, so far as I know, only two children, Wm R. and John C. The first three names listed in my g grandmother's Bible are: Thomas Alford (b Oct. 5, 1767), Wm. R. Alford (b Sept 5, 1796) & John C. Alford (b Mar. 28, 1798). John C was my g grandmother's father. There is a Power of Attorney filed in Nelson Co. VA that is signed by Thomas, Wm. R. & Jn. C. Alford - 'of Marshall Co, TN.' I have sent for a copy of this instrument to check the date, but I think it must date from late 1836 or after & concerns the land left in Nelson Co, to Frances Crisp Alford by her father, mother & Sister - Wm., Lucy & Peggy. This was probably a settling of the estate after Frances died in 1838. Also, Marshall Co. TN was not formed until 1836. There is listed the death date of Oct. 26, 1836 for "Frances Alford" in my g grandmother/s Bible. I am not ABSOLUTELY sure this is Frances Crisp, but I feel comfortable with the assumption that it is. Thomas is listed in the 1820 census of Rutherford Co. TN with one male over 45, one female 26 to 45 & two males 18 to 26. This certainly looks like the family of Thomas & Frances & their two sons. The info that you sent lists Thomas, who married F. Crisp, as the bro of John Alford, who married Eliz. Bibb. This has been my theory for a long time, but I could not prove it. It makes sense that both bros came to TN, along with the sister, who married Wm. W. Key. Is it certain that their father, William Alford, died in Nelson Co., VA? I ask this because Wm. Alford had property on Duck River in Davidson Co. TN as early as Sept 20, 1790 & March 3 1791. Who was this William Alford? (This info from Davidson Co. Land Records, 1788-1793, pp. 28, 32, 33.) Duck River runs through Marshall Co., TN (not Davidson Co. today) Well, these are just a few things I'd like for the members to ponder on and help me with. I must close, but will send more soon."

ADD Dec. 5, 1997 response from Lynn Shelley.

The following are excerpts from a report on a Virginia research trip in 1994 made by Diane Etchison AAFA#0656 in connection with the 1994 AAFA meeting in Richmond VA.

I'm afraid I didn't solve very many problems, but I did confirm that the William Alford who married Lucinda Alford in Amherst in 1804 was not the son of William of Amherst. The marriage records that had been compiled by the Amherst County courthouse clerk stated that Lucinda was William's daughter. On the off chance that the clerk had made an error, I checked the original marriage bond in the Amherst County courthouse. Sure enough, the marriage bond was attached to a separate note written by William Alford asking the clerk to grant a marriage license so that Lucinda Alford, his daughter, and William Alford could be married. I even compared the signatures of the groom and the father - they were definitely different. So, while William Jr may still be Pearigens' ancestor, he could not have been William Sr's son.

I did find out a few things about William Jr. He did not appear on the personal tax rolls in Amherst Co until 1806, at which time he paid taxes for one white male over 16 (himself) and one horse. In 1807 he was listed as William Jr (but I'm told the Jr/Sr designation simply indicated who was older and was not an indication of relatedness). There were no tax records in 1808 and by then Amherst Co was portioned into Nelson Co and the personal tax rolls of Nelson Co for the first few years were partially or completely unreadable. That's about the time all the Alford's appeared to have left. In 1811 there were no Alford's in Amherst or Nelson Co. (although there was an unrelated Thomas Alfred, the one who married Susannah Kennady)

William Jr is mentioned in William Sr's probate records.. Unfortunately , I was unable to copy the records because the Nelson County Courthouse didn't have a copy machine capable of handling the long format. I hand-copied most of it and transcription is enclosed. I didn't get all of the household inventory, but did get the names of the people settling their debt to or purchasing from the estate. William and Thomas Alford and Joseph Austin are listed.

One thing that puzzles me somewhat is the fact that William married Lucinda in 1804 yet wasn't on the Amherst tax records until 1806. I've suggested to Vesta that she might try looking at the 1804~1805 tax records of other counties in Va for stray William Alford's. He might have taken his new bride home and then decided to join the crew in Amherst a year or two later.

I think that it is very likely that William Jr is Pearigen's ancestor since he, along with the rest of the Alford's, left Amherst at about the same time and two William Alfords showed up in Tenn shortly thereafter (one of them being John-of Amherst's son). He must have lost his first wife, Lucinda, very early and then married the daughter or granddaughter (Sally) of another Amherst resident, William Hollingsworth in Tenn. Hollingsworth's name crops up everywhere in the Alford deed/probate records. He was the next door neighbor of William Alford and in fact he sold William some of his land in 1779. He was also the administrator of William's estate. There was also a William Hollingsworth Jr. on the tax rolls. I found a book listing for a Hollingsworth genealogy in the National Genealogy Society that might be worth examining for Alford connections.
