From Boone County Atlas, 1878-

Mr. Alford was born in Stokes Co., N. Car. in 1822. His father, John Alford was a farmer, and he trained his family in that pursuit. He was the father of ten sons and two daughters, of whom John T. was the sixth son. Owing to the withering influences of human slavery, together with the unsatisfactory returns of his labor, and learning of the rich fertile soil of the Northwest, he resolved to sell his farm of 200 acres and move northward. In the fall of 1833, he sold his farm @ $3.00 per acre, and moved into Pike Twp., Marion Co., Indiana. Here he purchased three 80-acre lots. At the age of 20, John T. moved to Indianapolis and learned the trade of a plasterer. He continued to reside there for twelve years. In June, 1847, and on his 25th birthday, he married Miss Sarah F. Gill. In 1853, when John's parents had become aged and infirm, he bought a farm and sold his business in Indianapolis, moving back to Pike Twp. where he took up farming. He remained there for five years, later moving his family including his parents to Sugar Creek Twp., Boone Co., locating on a farm 1 1/2 miles south of Thorntown. John and Sarah had nine children in the following order: Fannie, William M., Lillian, Josephine, Tilghman A., Emma, John W., Thomas G., and Annie, of whom two died in infancy, viz. William M. and Lillian. Mr. Alford later served as Justice of the Peace in Sugar Creek Twp.

Charles Mix County News- Thursday May 19, 1910

Mrs. J. T. Alford died on Tuesday May 10th, 1910, at her home near Wheeler. She had been in poor health for a number of years but always uncomplaining. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Camfield of Academy. His sermon was one great power, freighted as it was with faith and hope - flowers were on the casket, tokens of sympathy from kind friends - the remains were laid at rest in Pleasant Lawn Cemetery, Geddes, and so another pioneer of Charles Mix County has crossed to the farther shore and way beyond the reach of care or pain, out into the sunlight of an eternal day.

Ruby Ann Alford, wife of James T. Alford, was born at Fine, St. Lawrence County, New York, on Sept 8 1851; was married at Zionsville, Indiana, in 1869, moved to South Dakota in 1883 settled upon a homestead in Jackson Township, this county, where she resided up to the time of her death. She was the mother of three sons, Harry B., Charles B., and Brown Alford and one daughter, now Ruby K. Ross. She was the only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Brown.

Family members reported that Ruby was killed in a horse and buggy accident on May 10. The horse bolted and threw her from the buggy. After her death James T. Alford lived with son Harry and his family until shortly before his death.
