

Some of the Descendants of John Alford ca1801 North Carolina

Alford American Family Association computer designation JOH801NC

Revised May 2013

Generation One

1. John^I Alford #1, born Betw. 1790-1800 in North Carolina, died Betw. 1833-1840 in Pickens Co. Alabama. He married John's Wife's Name Unknown. #2, born betw. 1790 - 1800 in North Carolina, died betw. 1833 - 1840 in Pickens Co. Alabama. Burial place is unknown.

- Aunt Manza Tingle of Neshoba Co. Mississippi, daughter of John Madison Alford, said his brothers were George, Julius, and Duke; said their father was named John (but called Jack, as was son John Madison); and said the children were orphaned and parceled out to relatives. [Letters dated 1967 and 1983 from the late Herman Alford AAFA member #68 (grandson of John Madison) who thought the original John had lived near Carrollton in Pickens County, Alabama.]

- The eldest brother George Washington Alford died intestate Sept. 19, 1878 in Noxubee Co. Mississippi apparently having never married. His probate (Chancery Case 803) provides the only legal evidence connecting the brothers and reveals sisters Adeline and Frances. A further petition in 1885 (Chancery Case 1160) by John Madison Alford, Julius C. Alford, and Frances Alexander located their brother Julius C. in Hempstead Co. Arkansas. That suit plus CSA pension application 2881 for Julius C. Alford and the widow's pension application 3771 (both in Winn Parish, Louisiana) assured us that we had the correct Julius C.

- Now Y-DNA test results from one descendant of Julius C., one descendant of Marmaduke, and five descendants of John Madison (including 2 generations) confirm our research.

- The John Alford family in the 1830 census of Pickens Co. Alabama p. 133 fits known facts and cannot be located as one unit in subsequent censuses: 1 male under 4 [John Madison], 2 males age 5-9 [unknown son and Julius C.], 1 male age 15-19 [George Washington], 1 male age 30-39 [John]; 1 female under age 4 [Frances], 1 female age 5-9 [Adeline], and 1 female age 30-39 [assumed to be John's wife]. Marmaduke will be born ca1833. In all subsequent censuses, the children say both parents were born in North Carolina.

- Pickens County was very unhealthy in those days. County history said yearly epidemics sometimes wiped out whole families; those who survived usually moved on. It is thought that John, his wife, and the son born between 1820 and 1825 died during one of these epidemics. That son is not mentioned in the 1878 probate. Judging by the birth spaces of the other children and subsequent births of twins through all the known descending lines, it is possible that this son was a twin either to Adeline or to Julius C.

- Pickens County is a "burned" county of courthouse records destroyed in fires in 1864 and 1876. The probate judge has marriage, probate and land records from 1876 forward [Everton's Handy Book for Genealogists]. There is a ledger of United States Land Grants in Pickens County re-created by D. D. Patton in 1909 that he compared with the tract book in the United States Land Office in Montgomery, Alabama. The only Alford patent is on page 559 to Green Alford in Township 24 Range 1 West, Section 19, South quarter of Northwest quarter, 40 acres, sold August 27, 1832, Certificate 8043. The land entry file contained no genealogical information. This property is near the Sipsey River boundary with Greene County Alabama and near the Old Bethany Church and Cemetery. This might have been John's property before he died? So far there is no known relation to this Green Alford who was enumerated twice in 1830 in Greene County, once in 1840 in Pickens County, and apparently died before 1850?

- Fragments of two mortgages were found for John Alford of Pickens County next door in Greene County. [Greene County courthouse escaped damage by the Yankees in 1864 because the surrounding rivers were at floodstage when they came by.] Deed Book C (from Feb. 1828 to Nov. 1829) #142 indebted to M. Lewis on Mar. 3, 1828, and #143 indebted to T. Riddle, signed John Alford.

- Because of its fragile condition, this old original and valuable Deed Book C is kept in a drawer in the clerk's office, instead of being on a shelf with the other ledgers.

- The identity of the other John Alford [John Alford 1801 Georgia] known to be in Pickens County at this same time is further separated from our John by a mortgage in Greene County Deed Book C #225 dated Aug. 30, 1828, to Wm. M. Lewis, signed John W. Alford. This John William Alford married Leanna Roden and moved on to Carroll County Mississippi after 1830 where he died before 1860.

- According to Milton Folds (husband of the late Roberta Alford Folds AAFA member #49) at the AAFA meeting in Raleigh, North Carolina, there was a lot of movement of families across state lines to and from Georgia during this early period. That may explain the Georgia births of Adeline and John Madison while Julius C. says he was born in Pickens County Alabama.

1880 cannot be found as one family unit.

- According to Douglas Alford AAFA #204 and Hollis & Arlene Ferguson Alford AAFA #196 (all deceased), the family lore is that Duke went back for some reason and was never heard from again. But they must have had some word, because son Julius is enumerated as an orphan in the 1880 census of Panola Co. TX . Also Duke is not named in the 1885 petition by JMA, JCA, and Frances.

[UNPROVED theory of Peggy Alford Schuster: That his sister Frances got word to him about the 1878 inheritance, and after Annie Bell died, Duke rode a horse to Noxubee Co. MS to collect. He would have known about the Natchez Trace, a well-worn trail easy to follow. On the way back home perhaps he was accosted, robbed, and murdered by some highwaymen (as they were called). This possibility was suggested by the librarian at the East Baton Rouge Library after reading my timeline for Duke. She brought out an old worn book entitled Nightriders, Inside Story of the West and Kimbrell Clan, by Richard Briley, III, originally published in 1963 by Mid-South Publishing Company, republished in a limited printing as a community service and to advance interest in Central Louisiana historical events; 1992 Dogwood Press, Woodville, Texas. This outlaw clan had operated along the Natchez Trace and hidden the bodies in water wells and other places along the way.]

If still alive, their orphaned children would be Frances age 21 (of marriageable age), Martha J. age 19 (of marriageable age), Julius age 16, Mary age 14, and Alsey E. age 11. These were the only names appearing in the census. However, the family has always claimed a daughter named Addie whose tombstone shows a birth year of 1862. Addie could be a nickname for Adeline or Ada. It may be that Duke named his first daughter for the two sisters he remembered---Frances Adeline---and that Frances preferred the second name Addie when she got married??? I have found no trace of Frances as such after 1870 and no trace of Addie before 1880. It is my contention that Frances and Addie are the same person---the first-born daughter of Marmaduke and Isabella “Annie Bell” Alford and that she and her first husband John Jernigan have the orphaned Julius living with them in the 1880 census of Panola Co. TX and that the enumerator heard “Mattie” instead of “Addie”.

The orphans may have lost track of their birthdays---explaining the wrong date on tombstone for Addie. Roy Alford AAFA #208 related this memory from family lore: That Julius did not know when his birthday was, so his wife Melissa gave him October 7, 1864.

The transcriber of David's enumeration for the 1900 census of the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory had entered the E. for Elizabeth after David's name, thus the previous listing as David E. John Fletcher AAFA #1267 realized the error when he finally saw a copy of the census. Unfortunately, the E. is inscribed on David's CSA marker erected 2009.

AAFA NOTE: When I searched for Addie in the 1940 census, Ancestry.com had connected her with the family on the previous sheet, but that was a black family and the name was Rison not Thacker. When I looked at the original census with a magnifying glass, the enumerator had left proper notes in the margin clarifying the situation. When I searched for Charley Thacker and looked at the marginal note on the original beside his name, it all made sense. PAS
