Jemima was previously married to a Hodges and brought at least two children to the family. Joanna Hodges m. James Mincey and they were both enumerated with Meredith's 1910 family. Joseph J. Hodges was also in the family.

CENSUS (the census ages in this family do not track well):

1870 Bayboro, Horry Co. Warren 26 SC farmer; Mary J. 21, Mary T. 7 & William H. 3.

1880 Bayboro, Horry Co. Warren 47 SC turp farmer; Jane M. 46, William H. 12, George W. 6, Mary Williams ?-Dau 17 & Clarky 76 SC other. Presence of Clarky b. about 1804 may be a clue as to parents. Mary Williams was probably not a step-daughter but the real daughter who had married and returned home. The LDS census extraction listed her as step-daughter, but an examination of the original census shows that she was listed as wife daughter, a single person.

1900 Mingo Twp, Williamsburg Co. Warren 66 (Mar 1834), Mary J. 70 (May 1830), James H. 16 (Jun 1883) George W. and William H. were in households nearby with their wives.

1910 Horry Co. Warren T. 65, Jannie 70, James H. 25.

Mar 11 1891 Warren T. Alford grantee, Burrough and Collins Co., grantor $15 for 25 acres on Bay Gully Branch

Warren and Mary were apparently buried first in the Heniford Cemetery in Horry Co., along with a Richard W. Alford (Jul 15 1918 - Oct 15 1919). A note on the cemetery record: "Sometime after the fall of 1975 the cemetery was obliterated. Some of the stones were recovered and relocated."

Warren, Mary and Richard W. also appear in the Princeville Cemetery list. Apparently Princeville Cemetery is about six miles west of the old Heniford Cemetery which was on the John Heniford place.

Mary: Dates are from cemetery records. She and Warren were apparently first bu. in the old Heniford Cemetery and then moved of Princeville. She her ages from census records in Warrens file.

Is he same as Harlee M. Alford 36 in Horry Co. 1910?

Harlee M. 36, Fannie M. 24, Flossie M. 10, Sylvester 8, Rosa D. 6, Viola B. 3, Elizabeth Hook mother-in-law 64.

It was the above family in Columbus Co., NC in 1920 (all born SC): Harley M. 45, Fannie M. 43, Sylvester C. 17, Ardella C. 15, Viola B. 12, S. Jane 10, Leon H. 4 and James B. Smith brother-in-law 53.

Some of the data for this family came, circa 2002, from Sara Alford Allred shallred@asheboro.com. She says there was a son called "Chap" who ran a "thrift shop type store" in Georgetown. Says that may have been a nickname [could it have been Sylvester's middle name] and that his wife was Myrtie. They had daughters Thelma Inez Alford and Vera Alford who married Dan Case. Recent (2008) attempts to reach her have failed.

Fannie: "Hook" comes from mother-in-law enumerated with the family in 1910 Horry Co. Census. Lynn & OneWorldTree have her maiden name as Smith.
