

Known Descendants of Green Alford b. 1808 NC

December 2008 Version

This is a draft of a work in progress. We "discovered" Green in Mississippi as we were preparing for the AAFA meeting there several years ago and then found him again in Texas as we prepare for the 2009 AAFA meeting in Texas. There are obvious omissions, and probably errors.

We would very much like to know more about Green's ancestry and his connection with the NC Alford's. We would also like to have information that would bring the genealogy up to the present time. As it is on this date what is here is all we have.

1. Green Alford #10152 b. Jan 1809, North Carolina, m. about 1849, in Mississippi, Adelia _____ #10153, b. 1828, Mississippi. Green buried: Tilden (probably Hill Top) Cemetery.

Some of the information in this genealogy was found as part of a rootsweb family tree citing "McMullen County History" (McMullen County History Book Committee Publishe: 1981), p. 415

1930 April 8, Bexar Co., TX: Leonard B. 65 TX stock farmer; Anne C. 54 TX. He was first married at age 22 and she was first married at age 41. Based on wife's name in 1920 it is supposed that she was Anne Corinne.

Wife Corinne [Corene] has a plot in Pearsall Cemetery, identified to Leonard Barnett, but she apparently is not buried there.

Annie: Maiden name from LCM.

Children by India R. _____:

16. i Ethel Alford #10159 b. Aug 1888, Texas.
17. ii Lou J. Alford #10160 b. Aug 1891, Texas.
18. iii Maxwell Martin Alford #10161 b. Jan 4 1897, Tilden, McMullen Co., TX, d. 1935, Frio Co., TX, buried: Pearsall, Frio Co., TX.

In the WWI 1918 draft registration he was Max Martin Alford, age 21, living in San Antonio, Bexar Co., TX. He named his father as L.B. Alford.

We have, in the Isham branch, a Maxwell Alford b. Jul 1896 on Travis Co., son of Charles and Vallie Alford who might be confused with this Maxwell M. who we have as b. Jan 1897. He was probably born in Karnes Co.
