e-mail message from Dodd Eastham, August, 9 1999. <deastham@velaw.com>

I have a copy of the 1860 census enumeration. (And I was supposed to send a copy to Doris, sorry, I'll do that this week.) At that point in time, Eboline was married to Jessee H. Piland. The entry shows her as 27 years old and having been born in Texas. That would put her birth date in 1832 or 1833 and therefore she would NOT be one of the children mentioned in the 1830 Pike Co. Illinois census. I have been unable to find primary source material that PROVES that she is the daughter of Winfield, however the circumstantial evidence is great. I have found evidence that she was married once before she married Jessee Piland. Apparently, she married a Lewis Boren on 10 August 1848 in Washington County. By 1853, Lewis Boren had died and his estate was being settled in Gonzales Co. And Winfield Alford was the executor of the Boren estate. On 31 July 1854, Gonzales Co. issued a marriage license to Jesse Piland and Mrs. Pauline Boren. I have now seen this document. The index and the title on the document say 'Pauline', but the text of the document says 'Elbelina'. It is unclear to me (but I believe it is a possibility) if she had any children from the first marriage. By 1873/74 Eboline had been committed to the asylum in Austin. It was about this same time that Melvina Piland (a daughter I think, probably 14 years old) was buried. Eboline's estate paid for the casket. A. J. Alford (Eboline's younger brother?) petitioned the court (and apparently succeeded) to become guardian of Eboline's estate and person. Both he and Winfield signed a $10,000.00 bond to the effect that they would carry out the duties of guardian. In 1873, Jessee H. Piland filed for divorce and apparently it was granted because he was married to his third wife by 1875. Supposedly Eboline died in 1880 at the asylum. I have sent a query to the Austin State School to try and find a source for records from the asylum but have had no reply yet. In the later years, 1878 or 1879, R. M. King petitioned the court to become guardian. I don't know if it was granted. R. M. King was listed as the guardian of J. L. King in the probate of Winfield's estate where J. L. King was left a 1/9 portion. I'm not clear on the relationship of J. L. King to Eboline or Winfield. I am desperate for PROOF that Eboline is Winfield's daughter, but am finding that an elusive goal.
