Second Generation

2. Hudson Alford #27889 (1.James<sup>1</sup>) b. about 1760, North Carolina, m. .. #27890. Hudson buried: 1823, Wilkinson Co., MS. (This file is likely to appear some place where it is not applicable.)

Most of the data listed below comes from research done by Lynn Shelley.

Census:

1790 Wake Co., NC 1 male b. before 1744, 2 males born 1775 or after and 3 females.

1800 Wake Co., NC 11120-10110

1820 Wilkinson Co., MS 210001-30011

In 1784 he appeared in Wake Co., NC court and appointed constable.

In 1784 Hudson was appointed patroller (?) in Capt. Robert Temple's District.

In May 1804, Hudson and John Crudup (who was married to Rebecca Temple, daughter of Robert Temple) went to Wilson Co., TN

1806 Son Julius married to Ann Hays in Wilson Co., TN

1807 Hudson appears on Tax List of Wilson Co., TN.

1809, May, Hudson and Julius, as well as Thomas and Harmon Hays (brothers of Ann Hays) were listed as with others leasing land from Chief Doublehead in what later became Lauderdale Co., AL.

1810 Hudson and Julius were on tax lists of AL Indian lands.

1810 Dec, Julius and Hutson sign petition to Congress against the removal of settlers from the lands of Doubleheads Reserve.

Soon thereafter the Alford's went to Wilkinson Co., MS and the Hays brothers probably returned to Wilson Co., TN.

1816 Hudson is on the tax list of Wilkinson Co., MS.

1823 Hudson apparently died:

Census:

1800 Wake Co. NC 10100-10100

1810 Census lost for Wake Co

1820 Census lost for Wake Co, on tax list

1830 Morgan Co. AL as Kaid 00000001-000200001

1840 Tallahatchie Co. MS 000100001-0 plus 11 slaves.

Purchase of slaves: 4/16/1832: William E. Phillips & Calvin J. King, administrators of the estate of Charles King of Limestone Co. AL to C. Alford of Morgan Co. AL--$1368-Slaves: Minny, Wesley, Alfred, Isaac, William & Orrah [from Carroll Co. TN Deeds, Books A-B, Nov. 1822-Jun 1832, Vol. 1, by Vicky L. Morrow Hutchings; see son James for other Carroll Co. TN connection]

Cade is listed in Tallahatchie tax records in the years 1834-1841. (The A's are missing from tax records for 1842-43.) His property was on South Tillatoba Creek. In 1840 he had ten slaves and in 1841 9 slaves.

AAFA has a copy of a deed dated July 16, 1838 whereby William M. Given and Samuel Davis, through their attorney, Thomas B. Ives, sold to Cade Alford for $1,000 the SE 1/4 of section 12, township 24N range 2E on South Tillatoba Creek.

In patents dated 1840 Cade purchased about 315 acres of land in Township 24N Range 3E in Tallahatchie Co plus 160 acres just north of that in Township 25N Range 3E. Son Hudson purchased an adjoining 160 acres in Township 25N. It was this quarter section in Township 25N that Cade included in his will for Hudson.

A. Crudup traveled with Cade. Believe he may have married a relative of Cade's.

Some folks include in this family a daughter Nancy, born about 1827 and died August 1840, who married James A. Priddy. But, most folks think she is not of this family based on her absence in the 1830 Morgan Co. census.

Joseph C. Britt, a grandson of Cade's, was living with him at time of 1840 census as concluded from the census. It is thought he died of Cholera on way to Mexican War in 1846.

All the Alford's buried on HUDSON ALFORD's land 2-3 miles from Charleston, Tallahatchie County, Mississippi were descendants of CADE ALFORD.

His will dated August 1, 1840 was proved November 14, 1842. [Source is the will.] See a copy of the will in an accompanying article in this publication. Note that daughter Elizabeth was still alive when the will was written in 1840 but died before her husband, Calvin Russell, who was deceased by Aug. 1844 when James Alford was appointed administrator of his estate.

Elizabeth:

Her age deduced from 1800 and 1830 censuses.

One source on the Internet shows her name to be Crudup but there was no documentation and no evidence of the name elsewhere. Cade's probable brother, Hudson, traveled from Wake Co., NC to Wilson Co. TN with John Crudup who was married to Rebecca Temple.

Third Generation

Julius Alford, born about 1785, Wake Co. NC was probably the son of Hudson Alford who was enumerated in Wake Co. NC in 1790 and 1800. There were possibly other sons but only Julius' name is found in connections with Hudson in the following mentioned locations. It is impossible to determine Hudson's neighbors from census records because in 1790, the list is approximately alphabetical by first names and in 1800, the same is true by last names. Hudson first appears in

Wake Co. NC court records in 1784 when he was appointed a Constable. In 1794 he was appointed patroller in Capt. Robert Temple's district. Hudson Alford and John Crudup (whose wife was Rebecca Temple, dau. of Robert Temple) went to Wilson Co. TN in May of 1804. It is certainly possible that Hudson's wife was also a Temple. Hudson's probable son, Julius Alford, married Ann Hays (born about 1788, Wilson Co. TN), Feb. 18, 1806, in Wilson Co. TN. Her parents were John Hays and Rebecca Donaldson. Hudson Alford was still in Wilson Co. TN in 1807 when he appeared on the tax lists, but by 1809, he, with Julius and several of Julius' brothers-in-law (Thomas Hays and Harmon Hays), is found on a list of those leasing land from Chief Doublehead in what later became Lauderdale Co. AL. Hudson probably soon after went to Wilkinson Co. MS but he was there at least by 1816 when he is listed on the tax lists. An H. Hudson was found on the 1820 Wilkinson Co. MS census with a male and female over 45 and with other family members the exact ages, sex and number to be the family of Julius Alford (widow and five children) except for an extra female under 10. -- Lynn Shelley April 2004

According to his succession which is later filed in St. Helena Parish, LA, Julius Alford died in MS (probably Wilkinson Co.) in 1819. His widow married Jeremiah Byrum, Oct. 6, 1822, Wilkinson Co. MS. Byrum took the family to St. Helena Parish, LA, probably after the death of Hudson Alford, which occurred before Jan. 20, 1824, when an article appeared in THE WOODVILLE REPUBLICAN announcing the sale of the land of the estate of Hudson Alford for taxes. On March 15, 1824, in St. Helena Parish, LA, Jeremiah Byrum was appointed administrator of the estate of Julius Alford, deceased, and an inventory of the estate appeared in the succession records indicating an estate worth $2444, 10 slaves being the bulk of the estate. On May 10, 1824, Jeremiah and Ann C. Byrum were appointed joint Curator and Curatrix and tutors for the five children of Julius and Ann C. Alford (now Ann C. Byrum). These children were listed: John H. (over 14), and Rebecca, Robert T., Racheal, and Julius H. (all under 14 years of age). There being no relations to compose a family meeting, friends and neighbors appeared on behalf of the minor heirs and Abram Womac was appointed undertutor for the children to see to their interests. -- Lynn Shelley April 2004

Ann: Ann Alford was mentioned as an heir in the Wilson Co., TN will of her mother Rebecca Donaldson Hayes who died 1819 in Wilson Co.

Later, at approximately the same time as the marriage of Rebecca Alford, her stepfather, Jeremiah Byrum purchased land in Arkansas (Jan. 1826). It may have been at this time that Rebecca was made the guardian of Julius Harmon, her youngest brother, while the rest of the family went to Arkansas. Jeremiah Byrum again petitioned the St. Helena Parish LA court in April of 1825 for the right to sell some of the property of the minor heirs of Julius Alford because he had incurred debt due to "certain unavoidable losses sustained during the said year 1824 and owing to the drought of the season and the consequent shortage of crops." One of the slaves was sold, but poor crops could be another reason for moving to Arkansas. There are no Byrums in St. Helena Parish in 1830, but Jeremiah BYRAM is found in Hot Springs Co. AR on an 1828 tax list and in the 1830 census. There is a 15-20 year old male (probably Robert Temple Alford) and a 10-15 year old female (probably Rachael Alford) in the family as well as two females under 5 which must be daughters of Ann and Jeremiah born since their marriage. Robert Temple got land in Pulaski Co. AR in 1837 and is on the census in that county in 1840 with a son born 1830-1835 and one male slave. It is highly likely that the A.M.C. Byron, a female, age 62, born in TN, living next to Robert Temple Alford in 1850 Jefferson Co. AR is his mother, Ann Hays Alford Byrum. -- Lynn Shelley, April 2004.

James is listed in Tallahatchie Co. tax records for the years 1834-1848. (A's are missing from tax records for years 1842-43.) His property was on North Tillatoba Creek. In 1840 he had 13 slaves and in 1841 11 slaves.

James purchased, from the Federal Land Office in Chocchuma, about 461 acres in Tallahatchie Co and the patents for them were dated May and September 1848. The land was located in sections 13, 14, and 23 township 25N range 2E.

James was the agent for the estate of G.W. Bellamy who married his step-daughter Jane and had the SW 1/4 section 13, Township 25N range 2E.

James' death date is based on his will being presented to probate court in Tallahatchie Co. The will was published with the genealogy when it was published in the AAFA quarterly.

Nancy:

Nancy was first married to Thomas A. Thompson Nov 2, 1820, Caswell Co., NC. She had a daughter Jane by that marriage.

Listed with an unnamed female (15-20 years old) based on 1830 Morgan Co. AL census. In 1860 and 1870 Nancy Alford was living with her son-in-law, George W. Bellamy even though her daughter Jane was deceased by 1860.

Nancy was appointed by the court July 2, 1852 to administer the estate of James Alford. AAFA has a copy of the court order.

Isaac Hinton Alford, son of Peyton Alford, Sr., was probably born in Wake County in about 1807. He moved to Jones County, Georgia around 1815 with his parents.

On December 23, 1827, he married Matilda Bayne, daughter of Abraham and Sally West Bayne, in Jones County, Georgia. The young couple soon moved to Harris County, Georgia around 1828-29, as they appear there on the census of 1830. After a short stay there, Isaac, Matilda, and daughter Dorinda (Donida?), moved to Autauga County, Alabama in 1837 (land records). Alabama land records show he bought land from J.Q. Sewell in Autauga County on August 1, 1837.

By this time his wife, Matilda had died, as on March 8, 1838 Isaac married Louisa D. Davenport in Autauga County. A few months later, Isaac bought more land in Autauga County from Joseph Halloway on May 11, 1838. Isaac was living in the Prattville area of Autauga County at the time of the 1840 census. He had two girls between 5-10, one being Donida Alford, who married James T. Hamilton on August 2, 1849 in Autauga County. Isaac also had a son between 5-10. I can account for only Donida living past childhood. On October 18, 1842, Isaac was appointed guardian of his wife, Louisa's minor sibling, Cynthia Davenport, after the death of her father, William Davenport. Isaac was appointed overseer of the Coosada to Washington Road in Autauga County in February 1845.

Isaac's wife, Louisa, must have died around the late 1840s, as he married Elizabeth Stephens in Autauga County on April 24, 1849. On the 1850 census, Isaac and Elizabeth are shown living next door to his daughter Donida and her husband James Hamilton, near Prattville in Autauga County.

The last mention of Isaac in Autauga County was in February 1857, when he was appointed a "Juror of Revenue". I have no record of him in 1860. In the 1870 census of Sunflower County, Mississippi he was a single boarder with a William Hamilton and family. This could have been a son-in-law. William Hamilton had a young son named Isaac H. Hamilton, obviously named after Isaac Hinton Alford. That is all I know about Isaac Hinton Alford. — John Rogers, Oct. 29, 2007.

Robert and his family crossed the plains in 1856 or 57 They arrived that fall on a northern California-Oregon trail pass, a cut off of Lassen's trail. They first settled in Shasta County near Millville. By 1873 they finally homesteaded west of Anderson, Shasta County, California in Happy Valley.

First:

It is possible that Robert's first wife could have been a Harmon. The two "sisters" of Robert Temple given in the genealogy, [since removed] Anne and Susan, were really mother and daughter and probably a family that migrated west with Robert Temple from Arkansas. It is possible that Anne was his sister-in-law, but only because her maiden name was HARMON, do I say that. Robert also had an uncle named Harmon Hays, so his son John could have been named for a great-uncle, rather than Harmon being his mother's maiden name. Anyway, Anne Christa Harmon (b. 1833, Nashville, TN) married David R. Graves (born KY) in 1850 in Little Rock, AR. They had no children in the 1850 census. Their first child was Susan (born 1850/1851) and in 1870, Colusa Co. CA, she is recently married to John McCearas (born 1842, Australia) and still living in the household of David Graves, her father. The second child of David Graves was Arkansas Graves (born 1854) who married James Logan Williams in 1870, Colusa Co. CA. She is also in the genealogy but as a daughter of Ann Alford and _____ Graves. --Lynn Shelley e-mail 4/14/04:

It is now proven that this Julius Harmon Alford is the same Julius Alford who was a brother of Robert Temple Alford. He was enumerated in 1850 St. Helena Parish as J.H. Alford 31 MS with wife Augusta 23 LA and children Mary 3 and Robert 1. Julius was a farmer with $700 property.

The following was taken from a history prepared by Brenda LaGroue Mayers as a memorial to her grandmother Claudia Alford Humphrey.

"Julius Harmon Alford" was born 1819, just four years after Andrew Jackson defeated the British in the Battle of New Orleans. While still a small child, Julius' parents died and left him in the custody of an older married sister. The sister's family along with her parents' child, Julius, came to Louisiana around 1825 in a covered wagon and settled in an area later known as the old Tom Day Place near Easleyville. Julius fell in love with a young girl by the name of Augusta Addison, daughter of Brittain Addison and were married on December 30, 1843. After a land swap they settled on the old Alford place, built a small home, and moved into it when Robert Paris Alford was about six months of age."

The sister who took care of him was named Rebecca Alford Hazzard.
