JEPHTHA ALFORD
1797-1869

This is a work in progress. It is known to be incomplete and probably contains some error. Please use it accordingly. Recent generations were removed to protect the privacy of the living.

1. Jeptha Alford #25451 b. about 1797, Franklin Co., NC, (son of Goodrich Alford #5169) m. (1) Jul 30 1820, in Jones Co., GA, Jane Scoggins #25452, b. about 1804, Georgia, d. before 1855, m. (2) Dec 28 1855, in Carroll Co., GA, Nancy Jane Kirby Lyle #25453, b. about 1810, North Carolina. Jeptha died 1869, Georgia. See AAFA ACTION, Summer 1997, p. 38 for more on Jeptha and for his will.

Census: 1840, Troup Co. GA, 697th District, page 326 Jeptha 1121001-101101 [supposed to be five sons and three daughters]

Census: Sep 12, 1850, Carroll Co. GA, 11th Division, page 39, house 520: Jeptha 53 NC farmer $2000, Jane 46 GA, Jefferson 14 GA, Mary Ann 26 GA, Jane 12 GA, and Susan 10 GA. The three daughters should be the same as tabulated in 1840 but four of the sons are deceased or moved. (Three were enumerated in their own homes in 1850)

Census: Jul 19, 1860, Carroll Co. GA, Carrollton Post Office, 10th District, page 377, house 199, family 199: Jeptha 60 NC farmer with $800 real property and $300 personal property, Nancy 50 NC, Mary Williams 36 GA, Martha Williams 26 GA.

Census: Jun 22, 1870 Carroll Co., GA. Carrolton District, page 149, house 264, family 264: Nancy 58 NC $700 real property and $200 personal property. Also in the household was Richard Lyle 37 GA farmer, Mary A. Lyle 26 GA and Enoch Lyle 4 GA. Jeptha's second wife supposed to be Nancy Jane Kirby who had apparently divorced Charles L. Lyle. Sons William M. and Kirby witnessed Jeptha's will (per Joel Alford)

One thing I found when at GDAH was a published 1860 Carroll Co. GA census. The Alford extractions were identical to what we had but I thought I should look at who was living around Jeptha and kin that year. Sure enough, two of the daughters mentioned in his will are living immediately next to other Alford kin:

Page 375, House 188/Family 187 (immediately before Richard Alford) J. S. Phillips 29 M GA
Farmer Jane 21 F GA Mary A. M. 2 F GA Susan E. 1 F GA

Page 376, House 198/Family 197 (immediately after Wash Alford and two away from Jeptha---one between this and Jeptha was Sol Williams, probably former brother-in-law of Nancy, wife of Jeptha)
Thomas Jones 20 M GA Farmer Susan A. 18 F GA Mary A. 2 F GA
George W. 3 months GA

These are Jacob Phillips and Thomas Jones, sons-in-law of Jeptha mentioned in his will. Jacob Phillips was the executor of his will. Kirby Lyle and William Lyle, two of the three witnesses to the will were also close neighbors. William Scoggins (age 80, b. NC) also living nearby may have been the father? of his 1st wife.

Jane: According to LDS records I find where Allen Scroggins born GA. abt 1788 died Bef 1820 married Nancy J. (Jane ?) Scoggins on 16 Jun 1810 Ky. Nancy's parents were Jonah Scoggins and Anna Hightower. Since Allen Scroggins died before 1820 this would make her available to Jephtha to marry in 1820. The only thing that detracts from that is it shows Nancy born in GA 10Feb1792 and we show her birth abt 1804. Interesting. --Joel Alford via email 12/14/02

What proof do we have that Jane's name was Piper. "Family tradition" says it is so but there is no marriage record to support it. If James R. married in 1840 and had a child where were they in the 1840 census? There is a record of George W. Alford and Jane Piper marriage in Troup Co in 1839. In 1840 Troup Co., GA there was a George W. Alford with no family other than a wife - they were very young - age 15-20 and probably the couple who married the year before. While it is possible that George W. and James Richard are one and the same person in the marriage/census records it seems improbable. We are delisting "Piper" as the wife until some proof is provided.

Census: Sep 12, 1850, Carroll Co., GA, 11th Division, page 39, house 524: Richard 29 GA farmer, Jane 30 GA, Wellborn 10 GA, Washington 7 GA, Jesse [Jeptha] 5 GA, Jane 2 GA, Elizabeth 1 mo GA.

>Unquote, What seems a bit more strange to me is that his older son George Washington Alford was still living so why wasn't he mentioned? George according to my records I think I got from AAFA had moved to Ms. about 10 years earlier. It could be simply because they had been out of touch and that may have been why no direct grant was made to Clarence Juhan. A thought occurs to me however that since I have found where it was stated that all of Clarence Juhans brothers had been killed in the civil war (which I thought was simply an error) could This particular George Washington Alford have been not James Richard's son?? I know there were several George Washington Alford's and it may be possible that somehow he got picked up as James Richards son when in fact he may not have been and his actual son George Washington may have been killed in civil war. I don't have the info available to answer that. Since my answer to YOD was sent previously I won't repeat except to say you are probably correct. Joel Alford <

Dear Joel,

If you get a copy of Richard's will, please give us a copy.

An earlier problem that I find also exists with a George Washington in this family. I think I have mentioned this before and I think we need to investigate the possibilities--Were two different Troup Co. GA marriages combined in the published records? Did James Richard really marry someone other than Jane Piper (do we have proof that that was his wife's name?), or exactly what is the problem with the Troup Co. marriage records as compared with our genealogy: From Troup Co. GA Marriages-- George Washington Alford married Jane Piper, Sept. 26, 1839 In the 1840 Troup Co. census, there are only two Alford's on page 326, 697th Dist. and these are George W. (he age 15-20 with female 15-20), and Jepthah (5 sons and 3 daughters as well as a wife). We do not have a George Washington listed as a son of Jeptha.

We have that Richard Alford married Jane Piper but no date. The children living in Richard's household in 1850 definitely indicate a marriage date of c1839 as the eldest son Welborn/Wilburn is 10 years old (born 1840). Washington is 7 so was born 1843. What happened to George Washington who is next to Jephtha in 1840? Could it be that he died and Jane married George's brother, James Richard and they either named their first son George Washington (meaning Wilburn was the son of George W. and Jane) or maybe Jane was expecting George Washington Jr. when his real father died and then Richard married her? He is only shown as Richard in the census. Where did the James come from? Also how do we know that William Gabriel had that first name? He married Mary Driver in 1858 according to our marriage records, yet in 1850 he has a wife named Mary with three children under 5? WHY IS WILLIAM GABRIEL NOT MENTIONED IN HIS FATHER'S WILL? His marriage to Mary Driver is not in the Carroll Co. published marriages either, but was given to us by Vachel Driver.

We have that Mary Ann Alford married William Wright Driver in 1834, Pike Co. but she is living at home as Mary Ann Alford (age 26) in the 1850 Carroll Co. census and in that same census William Wright Driver and his first wife Tabitha are enumerated elsewhere in Carroll Co. with 6 children. Tabitha supposedly died after their 8th child and then he married Mary Ann (I suppose before 1860). That marriage is also missing from our list because we have it as 1834 Pike Co. and the source as Vachel Driver. In the FGS attached to info he sent Gil, the date of the marriage is given as 1850-1851.

Where did the info come from that all of Clarence Juhan's brothers were killed in the Civil War? What do you have to support this?

Those possibly from this family that I have record of that were killed in the Civil War, died soon after, or filed for pensions (from INDEX TO GA CIVIL WAR CONFEDERATE PENSION FILES) only include one person: Thomas (Lucinda, widow of Thomas of Co. B, 56th GA, of Carroll Co.)-- IS THIS THE THOMAS ALFORD IN RANDOLPH CO. AL IN 1860? If so, he was born 1827 and if Jephtha's son, his age in 1850 is at least 10 years off (but the ages are not in correct birth order so maybe it was??).

I will search through the rosters I have and see who else might fit.

This is surely enough for now.

Lynn

The late V. V. Driver said Willam G. and Mary Driver were married May 20, 1858 but that does not fit with the birth dates of the children in 1850 census as shown below. The marriage data has been removed. Why was he not mentioned in Jephtha's will if he was a son? Could Gabriel and Guthridge be the same person? The marriage data we have for the latter does not fit.
