

Known Descendants of JULIUS CHARLES ALFORD

This is not the typical AAFA genealogy. These descendants of Job Alford are from a file created by John A. Rogers, AAFA #0544 who is the AAFA authority on Job Descendants. John has researched these folks to a greater degree than AAFA had researched most other Alfords. John also includes more information in his report than is found in a typical AAFA genealogy.

Nevertheless it is a work in progress and probably is not complete and with some error. Generation 5 has been removed to protect the privacy of most of the living. The work contains many names but the only ones listed in the index are those listed within the registry system.

1. Julius Charles Alford #330 b. 1805, Wake County, N.C., (son of Job Alford #325 and Sarah Ann Turner? #326) m. Elizabeth Gay #6182, b. 1808, Unknown, (daughter of John William Gay #16284 and Margaret Eady #16285) d. 1847, Talbot County, Georgia, buried: 1847, Talbot County, Georgia. Julius died 1849, Talbot County, Georgia, buried: 1849, Talbot County, Georgia. (20) Julius Charles Alford, named after his grandfather, was born in 1805 in Wake County, North Carolina. He grew up in Wake County and later, as a teenager, in Jones County, Georgia. Julius was a member of Caney Creek (New Hope) Baptist Church in Jones County in 1822. In about 1823, he moved, with his parents to Upson County, Georgia. In 1827 the young Julius was granted land in the Redbone District (555) of Upson County. That same year he married Elizabeth Gay (1808-1847), daughter of John William and Margaret Gay. Julius had apparently known the Gay family ever since growing up in Jones County, as John William Gay was a member of New Hope Church in Jones County in 1823. The Gay family and the Alford family had been close friends since the mid 1700s back in Franklin County, North Carolina. Thomas Gay was a witness to old Julius Alford's will. The Alfords, including Julius were also members. By 1830 Julius had moved to Talbot County, just west of Upson. He was shown on the 1830 Talbot County, Georgia census in Duprees District, not far from his father and brother, John Turner Alford. Also living nearby was his father-in-law, John William Gay, who had also moved from Upson County. Acting as Justice of the Peace, on August 7, 1831, Julius married William Tacket to Charlotte Alsobrooks. In 1832 and 1833, Julius was serving as a justice on the Inferior Court in Talbot County. On January 1, 1833, Julius had an unclaimed letter at the Talbotton post office. On April 12, 1835, Julius bought land from Levi Timmons and on October 18, 1836 he bought another 202 acres from Russell Brooks of Leon County, Florida. On March 18, 1838, Julius, as Justice of the Peace, married his nephew, Wiley William Owens to Mary Sockwell of nearby Upson County. He was back in Talbot County in 1840. The 1840 census lists him with 3 sons and 2 daughters. In 1847, Elizabeth, Julius's wife, died. Soon after, in 1849, Julius apparently died. Talbot County court minutes, show that in September 1849, Columbus Americus Alford, listed as "orphan of Julius", was bound over to the care of his maternal grandfather, John Gay. His oldest son, Thomas Lafayette, went to live with his uncle, James Gay. His probable daughter, Ann, went to live with her Aunt Phada Alford Moore. His probable daughter, Lamar, went to live with her Aunt Matilda Alford Owens. Julius and Elizabeth had at least the following children:

Columbus Americus Alford, son of Julius Charles Alford, was born in 1838 in Talbot County, Georgia. He spent his early childhood there, until 1847 when his mother died. His father died soon after in 1849. After his death, Columbus was bound over to his maternal grandfather, John Gay, according to Talbot County court minutes (page 86) of September 1849. He is found with them in the 1850 census of Chambers County, Alabama, where the family had moved in early 1850. By 1860 he had moved in with his older brother, Thomas

Lafayette, in Randolph County, Alabama. On August 1, 1860, Columbus bought 80 acres of land in Randolph County. He served as a private in the CSA artillery during the Civil War. Columbus died during the Civil War on July 4, 1864.

In 1866 he was cut in to the newly created Clay County, Alabama, where they show in the 1870 census. He lived all his adult life there on Mountain Road. There, like his father before him, he served many years as a Justice of the Peace, and lived there until his death. In 1879, his wife died. On July 7, 1880, Thomas married Frances Blankenship, who died a year later. He married his third wife, Samantha J. Phillips (2/1854-aft 1910), on May 28, 1882, also in Clay County.
