

Known Descendants of KINCHEN ALFORD
1812 NC - 1891 GA

January 17, 2013

This genealogy is as complete as data currently on hand in AAFA will allow. Living persons under age 100 have data excluded for privacy reasons. There may be some error and there is probably data that we don't have so treat it accordingly. Please report corrections and additions to alford_staff@alfordassociation.org or to AAFA, POB 1297, Florissant MO 63031.

What follows is a branch segment of a larger genealogy– like just maybe one limb of the tree. Going before the folks listed in the genealogy were:

John Alford b. 1645 VA (probable), James Alford b. ca 1687 VA (proven), Lodwick Alford b. ca 1710 VA (proven) and Kinchen Alford b. 1768 NC proven.

1. Kinchen Alford #3362 b. May 9 1812, Franklin Co., NC, (son of Kinchen Alford #3356 and Linda Williams #3357) m. (1) Jul 28 1832, in Putnam Co., GA, Cynthia Alvera #3368, m. (2) 1845, Nancy Haynes or Haines #3369, b. about 1825, Monroe Co., GA, m. (3) Apr 9 1863, in Putnam Co., GA, Mary Bryant #3370. Kinchen died Jul 26 1891, Rutledge, Morgan Co., GA.

He was known to some as "William Kinchen Alford."

Birth and death date from DAR records.

DAR records show marriage with Cynthia in June instead of July.

The following is the compiler's transcription from a photocopy of an 1858 letter from Kinchen. Some spelling changed and punctuation added.

Madison Morgan County Feb 1 1858 Dear Brother I have taken this opportunity answering your letter recd yesterday and was glad to hear from you all. I can assure you that we are all well at present. I am overseeing for Koller that lives in Maderson at the Hemss Hill place on the road leading from Kinson to Maderson 1 mile from Maderson and 3 miles from Buckhead. My wages is all my bread cooking and washing and one hundred dollars worth of meat & 3 hundred dollars. I have 47 hams. Our crops of corn & wheat was very good cotton half crop. Corn is worth 50 cts per bushel wheat one dollar per hundred. I saw Mr. James Purdew that lives in 12 miles of Dangerfield he went from Green near Parks Bridge & he told me that filmore ?? was dead he said he was not acquainted with you but promised me that he would call and see you when he returns the sale of our parents took place in 25 of November. Brother WILLIAM and sister ELIZABETH was there. I could not leave my business. WILLIAM bought three Negroes & ELIZABETH one that sold high I think he said for Jim $72.50 dollars. The estate amounted to 7500 dollars or there about. I will state to you that my son WILLIAM was married the 5 of January he married Jack Mullins daughter. He lives here & is getting what I live at Jordans when you was here. I have nothing more I would be glad to be with you in Texas but I reckon that I shall never be able to get there my family is too large and is getting larger every two years till it takes all that I can make to feed and clothe them. I have nothing more to give my respects to all you your family & take a part yourself Wright soon and don't let it be so long between times.

CENSUS:

June 29, 1870, Talladega Co. AL Page 558, house 1, family 1. Enumerated with Alley W. Johns 65 GA farmer, Jane Johns 64 KY, Robert N. Johns 24 AL, Mary C. Johns 25 AL. James C. Alford 24 GA farmer, Samantha Alford 31 AL (at home).

1880 Talladega Co. AL, page 6, J. C. 34 GA, Sarah 30 AL, Lucius Vaughn 9 AL, Kinchen 8, Robert 7, Percy 4 and Orma 2.

1900 Childersburg, Talladega Co., AL James C. 54 GA, Sarah 55 AL, Omer 23 AL, Bennet 15 AL, Ola 12 AL, Mattie Smith 56 AL aunt.

1910 Childersburt, Talladega Co., AL: Sarah 60 AL, Mattie Smith 65 AL sister, Ola Cull 27 AL daughter, Florian Cull 28 AL son-in-law.

There is no proof that "Samantha Johns" was James' first wife. However, James and Samantha Alford, as described here, were enumerated with the Johns family in 1870 Talledega County and she was listed as "at home." We are listing her here as a prime candidate for the heretofore unknown wife. If she was a Johns daughter then she had a brother named "Robert" which might have influenced the naming of her second son. - The first having been named for James' family.

Sarah had a son, Percy, by her first marriage and he was enumerated with the Alford family in some censuses.

The following is partial text of a letter received from Timothy W. Alford AAFA#0476 dated November 9, 1993. "As far as my Alford ancestry is concerned I'm pretty sure that I have found my great-great-grandfather Alford. His name is spelled variously as Kinchen, Kitchen and even Kezchen. My grand-father Bennett Allae Alford, Sr. refers to him in a letter dated 12 Feb. 1955 in which he states that he saw and even visited his grandfather and his family in Rutledge, Georgia. In another letter dated 9 Dec 1953 he clears up the confusion about his father's children: his mother, Sarah Elizabeth Smith, married James Clay Alford. She had one son by a previous marriage, Lucius Vaughn. James Clay had two sons by a previous marriage, Kinchen W. and Robert Alford (the W. stands for Warren and Robert was known as Bob)."

His obituary has his middle name as "Allas." The obituary was published in AAFA ACTION, Summer 1995, page 15.

Bennett was the father-in-law of Eunice Ray Alford, AAFA #0610, and the grandfather of AAFA members: Timothy Alford #0476, Harold Bennett Alford #0692, Steven L. Alford #0693 and Victor Ray Alford #0694.

Tim Alford, AAFA #0476 was the source of most of the information we have on this limb of the family tree. He also gave gift memberships to his mother, Eunice Ray Alford and his brothers, Harold, Steven and Victor.

The children of the family of Bennett's father began to leave Talladega County after Bennett's mother died. Bennett went to Albertville as a cotton buyer for Robeson Brothers. He and his oldest son, James H. Alford, opened Alford Cotton Company where Harold Bennett worked until his death.
