

This covers a period before any Alford's were known to be in the area. Albemarle, a first county, was established in 1664. Shaftesbury Co. was cut from Albemarle in 1671 and renamed Chowan Co. in 1684. As shown in the boxes Bertie Co. was created from Chowan in 1722. It was probably Bertie Co. when Lodwick Alford and his brother Julius Alford arrived with their families about 1740. Some other county boundary changes had been made in 1729 and 1734. The NC counties extant in 1734 are listed in the lower left.
