During all the time he was a member we were not able to help him one iota with his Alford's. Being from OH and NY they probably connect to the Benedict Alford branch but we don't know how. I doubt seriously if there is an Ahnentafel, but I'll see what I can produce. Don't hold your breath though. If you go to the quarterly to see his new member lineage, which would normally have been in Winter 1995 issue, page 5 or 6 you will see that #0679 was omitted. Allan listed no spouse on his application and he began his lineage with his great grandmother Catherine Alford Schanck b. Oct 10 1832 in Allegheny Co. NY. She was the daughter of Sophia Alford b. Jun 30 1811 in Wayne Co., NY and William Schanck. Catherine married Thomas Jefferson Lackey. It appears she died Feb 17 1906 in Phillipi, WV. Sophia's parents are supposed to be John and Catherine Alford.

Attached find a pdf file containing a copy of his letter to AAFA via our then VA state rep. He apparently got his address from publicity for the VA 1994 meeting. Joe sent it to me and I responded and Allan joined.

Dear Mr Alford,

I learned about your family association in the Monmouth Connection, May 1994 issue.

My great grandmother Lackey was Catherine Alford Schanck. What little I know about her and her Alford ancestors follows:

- She was b 18 October 1832 in Allegeny Co NY, and married Thomas Jefferson Lackey, on 18 August 1853, in Franklin County OH.
- Her mother was Sophia Alford, b 30 Jun 1811, maybe in Wayne Co NY. She married William Schanck, probably on 5 March 1829, in Allegeny Co NY. He was b 9 Jun 1813 in Monmouth Co NJ.
- Her parents, very likely, are John and Catherine (_____) Alford. I understand that she had a brother William and a sister Lucy Ann. William Alford married Catherine Conover (younger sister of the mother of William Schanck), and they are buried in Mt Blair Cemetery in Woodcock Twp, Crawford Co PA, beside Ephraim and Nelly (Conover) Schanck, parents of William Schanck.

Is it possible that someone in your association may have some knowledge of the ancestry of my Sophia Alford?

Please let me know what information may be available. I will be glad to reimburse you, or whoever, for any copying costs. Your suggestions will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Allan M Lackey
