Martha Jean Fulton Harvey, 89, of Roanoke, passed away on Memorial Day, May 27, 2013. She was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, John Eldridge Harvey; son, John Davis Harvey; four sisters; and a brother.

Jean left a legacy as a devout Christian who believed in works and a loving mother who believed in patriotism. She was a lifelong member of Calvary Baptist Church where she filled many roles including deacon and Sunday School superintendent. She was active in the Daughters of the American Revolution, serving as regent and State Chaplain. Jean retired from the Social Security Administration following over 20 years service at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

She is survived by her daughter, Jaye Harvey Wellons (Hugh); daughter-in-law, Alisa Harvey Dick (Tom); five grandchildren, Lauren Harvey Andrews (Tim), Meredith Paige Dick, Aaron Andrew Dick, Hannah Ruth Harvey Wellons, Rebekah Davis Harvey Wellons; and five great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends on Thursday May 30, 2013, from 4 to 6 p.m. at Oakey's South Chapel at 4257 Brambleton Ave S.W. in Roanoke. The funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday May 31, 2013, at Calvary Baptist Church located at 608 Campbell Avenue S.W. in Roanoke.

In lieu of flowers, Jean would welcome gifts to the Calvary Baptist Church Foundation.
