Pappy left his Family and Friends better people by his presence in their lives. He is now with our Lord, but our memory of him will stay with us all forever. Dear family of Pappy: We flew together back in the 50s at Alexandria, LA. Those were good years and I remember them well. I was in the 614th and went Italy in 1956 and then left TAC. I think Pappy and I might have seen each other at 401st reunions, but I`ll never forget him. Keep the faith. Richard C. Fontaine, Lt Col, retired

We are blessed to have known Pappy. He always had such a gentle and quiet spirit. Family celebrations won`t be the same - he will be missed.

I was an F4 back seat pilot with Pappy in the 390th. I`ll always remember his story about the F-100 (F-84?) flight leader whose stick grip came off of the stick while he was leading a flight. It`s been a long time and I don`t remember much about Pappy but I know I liked him a lot and all the junior guys like me looked up to him. May God bless you all.

I don't think I'll ever see another milkshake without thinking of Pappy and how his eyes would light up when he would have one. I'm so happy I was able to know him for a little while.

I met Pappy in 50s at Alex and I tried to remember if he was in the 612th at sometime or other. I remember meeting him at the reunions and all I can remember is he was a great guy.

My first air show-1956 in Shreveport @ Barksdale AFB when I was 4 years old. There were these loud screaming jets. My mom would explain that Uncle Junior flew these loud things while I covered my ears. 51 years later-I am sorry to hear-about his passing. I did not see him too many times in my life-but the times we did get together were quite magical. Never have I met a more intriguing individual. I once asked him about 10 years ago-about a sound that came from Eglin test range. A sound unlike anything my brothers or me ever heard.....his answer....He said, "Funny airplanes do funny things!" Tongue in cheek. I know he missed his wife and misses his 101 year old mother. I know he misses his children and grandchildren, and great grandchild. The Vogler family is saddened by their loss. An extraordinary Gentleman and Warrior. A true American Hero.
