John Alford 1645-1710 (3 Generations)

This is a work that has been in progress for almost 30 years and continues to be in progress. It obviously is not complete and it may contain some error. If you have factual information that pertains to any of the following please send it to AAFA, POB 1297, Florissant, MO 63031 or email it to AAFA. See www.alfordassociation.org/contacts for the current email address.

We have Y-DNA from several descendants of John Alford and the Y-DNA of descendants of ten other branches of the family. These branches are not connected to John with the traditional genealogical data, however it is reasonable to believe that they will prove to connect somewhere with in this John Alford branch. The other ten branches are: CHA790NC, CLA890GA, EXU788NC, ISH755NC, JAM715VA, JAM749NC, JOH801NC, JOH816NC, SAL716VA, & WIL760NC. We need Y-DNA tests of as many male Alfords as possible.

1. John Alford #4656 b. about 1645, probably Virginia, m. Wife is Unknown #4657. John died Mar 14 1710, New Kent Co., VA.

The late Tressie Bowman, publisher of the ALFORD FAMILY BULLETIN in a family group record provided to AAFA used the St. Peter's Parish Register and Boddie to compile a family as is shown in this record. Although the church record does prove a John Alford had the children listed there is nothing to prove it was the John who died in 1710.

Please note that there is no proof that James was the son of John. There are some who make a William Alford the father of James. It is true that there was a William Alford in the area at the same time who had about equal circumstances as James. We lean to John but you can take your pick.

There are important notes at the records of most of the children. Please don't draw any conclusions about them without first reviewing those records.

John's date of birth is nothing more than a guess- as is his place of birth. See also Boddie, John HISTORICAL SOUTHERN FAMILIES, Vol XII, page 57-58.

His death was reported in The Parish Register of Saint Peter's New Kent County, Virginia 1680-1787 published by The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America in the state of Virginia, 1904, Richmond. Reprinted by Heritage Books, 1988

The Colonial Dames has accepted John Alford as a supplemental ancestor of one of our AAFA members.

The following is a summary of the John Alford entries in the St. Peter's Parish Vestry book (V) and Register (R). Obviously covers at least two John Alfords. Original spelling is used.

Children:

+ 2. i Elizabeth Alford #4658 b. est 1683.

+ 3. ii James Alford #29 b. about 1687.

4. iii William Alford #4659 b. est 1690, probably Virginia, d. Feb 11 1710, New Kent Co., VA. There is no real basis for this estimated date of birth. The St. Peter's Parish Register gives this date for death of William Alford but it does not specifically identify which William. There was another William, a contemporary of John Alford, Wm's supposed father, it could have been him.

+ 5. iv Mary Alford #4660 b. est 1691.

+ 6. v John Alford #4661 b. est 1693.

Second Generation

2. Elizabeth Alford #4658 (1.John¹) b. est 1683, probably Virginia, m. Nov 3 1698, in New Kent Co., VA, Jacob Winfrey #4662. Elizabeth died Mar 27 1714. There is nothing that says the Elizabeth who married Winfrey was the daughter of John Alford - particularly this John Alford. Marriage: St. Peter's Parish Register, page 52

Children:

- 7. i John Winfrey #4665 b. 1699, New Kent Co., VA.
 - 8. ii Jane Winfrey #4666 b. 1701, New Kent Co., VA.
 - + 9. iii Jacob Winfrey #4667 b. 1704.
 - 10. iv Eleanor Winfrey #4668 b. 1707, New Kent Co., VA.
 - 11. v Henry Winfrey #4669 b. 1710, New Kent Co., VA.
3. James Alford #29 (1.John¹) b. about 1687, probably New Kent Co., VA, ref: JAM687VA, m. . #30.
James died about 1730, New Kent Co., VA.
Birth and death dates are estimates based on other recorded events in New Kent County, VA in the St. Peter's Parish Register.
PLEASE NOTE: It is not proven that he was the son of John Alford but there is some circumstantial evidence indicating that he is. See comments on the subject in John Alford's record. See Boddie below. Boddie, Mrs. John Bennett, "Historical Southern Families, Volume XII." () "James Alford, son of John Alford, was probably born about 1685-90, and died in New Kent Co. between 1721 (his last appearance in the records of St. Peter's Parish, p. 180, and 1735, when his sons Lodwick, Julius and Goodrich are shown as tithables, but he was not mentioned (St. Peter's P.R., p. 246). His wife's name is unknown, but St. Peter's Parish Register shows that he had the following children." [As listed in this family record. It is pretty obvious here that they really don't say when or where James was born or died.] There are some who believe that he went to North Carolina with sons Lodwick and Julius.

WHAT IS NOT!

Northen, William J., Ed (Ex-Governor of Georgia), "Men of Mark in Georgia." (Spartanburg, SC: The Reprint Company, 1974) This "source" contains sketches on Drewry Cade Alford, Columbus Augustus Alford, and Julius C. Alford. "The three immigrants were: William, born in London in 1608, who, with his two brothers, Benedictus and Alexander, came to Boston. William had a son Benjamin, born in 1650; Benjamin a son James, born in 1691; James had a son James William Zion Alford, born about 1730. It is not certain whether he was born in Boston or in North Carolina, for his father moved to North Carolina about that time." END OF WHAT IS NOT

We have enough information on the New England families to know that there were TWO "Alford" brothers, Benedictus (Benedict) and Alexander (Alvord) who came to Boston with their sister. We know about William, Benjamin and James, but William was probably not a brother and that James was not the same James as the progenitor of the southern Alford's. Bernard Suttler, who wrote the articles, apparently had not heard of the Alford's who had been in Virginia since before the brothers arrived in Boston, nor had he heard about the St. Peter's Parish Church records which document James' presence there. For over 25 years we have been looking for any shred of evidence to prove a James William Zion Alford but have not succeeded. There were James Alford's, William Alford's, and Zion or Sion Alford's, but never one person with all three names.

When we became involved in the Alford search in the early 1980's folks were using the 1691 birth of the New England James Alford for the James Alford of Virginia. Note that Boddie above waffled with "about 1685-90." To eliminate the waffle and move away from the erroneously used 1691 we began using the date of about 1687. There is not anything to prove that.

In various entries of the St. Peter's Parish Vestry Book and Register his presence was mentioned:
September 6, 1710 his account was allowed 420 pounds for keeping a Parish child. (pg 143)
November 16 1713 his bill was credited with 350 pounds. (pg 156)
February 7 1713 when son James was born. (pg 354)
August 28 1715 when son Warren was born. (pg 354)
September 1717 when son Julius was born. (pg 449)

September 29, 1718 as surveyor of ye highways. (pg 168)
 September 29 1721 allowed 76 1/2 pounds for an Overlist. (pg 180)

Children:

- + 12. i Goodrich Alford #4653 b. about 1708.
- + 13. ii Lodwick Alford #3085 b. about 1710.
- 14. iii James Alford, Jr. #4654 b. Feb 7 1713, New Kent Co., VA.

The Vestry Book and Register of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent and James City Counties, Virginia, 1706-1786 as transcribed and edited by C.G. Chamberlayne shows that James, son of James Alford, was born February 7th 1713 and Christened April 12 1713. We have no further record of him until July 24 1761 when he was granted 610 acres on Crooked Creek, then in Granville Co. The land joined that of Lodwick Alford. It was surveyed for him Dec 2 1760 and he sold the land to John Ferrell Jun 19 1770.

He paid taxes in Bute Co. in 1766 along with Goodrich, Julius, Lodwick and Lodwick, Jr. In 1767 he apparently served as some official capacity in the county because, as James Alford Esquire he "returned his list of Taxabales."

6. John Alford #4661 (1.John¹) b. est 1693, New Kent Co., VA, m. Grace _____ #4670. John died May 2 1726, New Kent Co., VA. See the list of "John Events" in the record of his supposed father. The St. Peter's Parish Register proves that John was married to Grace and his death date. It shows that they had children: Frances, Isaac, Elizabeth, Unity and Charity. It also shows that Grace later married Michael Harfield. John Alford identified the last three children in his will signed May 1, 1726. At that time John owned nine slaves and they were given to the daughters in the will. In a court case in Halifax County, September 1771, John Bates was seeking a settlement involving the slaves and the will was introduced as evidence. The court case goes on to say "We find that a certain John Bates intermarried with Elizabeth Alford a legatee therein named . . ."

Third Generation

9. Jacob Winfrey #4667 (2.Elizabeth², 1.John¹) b. 1704, New Kent Co., VA, m. Jane _____ #29434.

Children:

- + 23. i Isaac Winfrey #29435.
12. Goodrich Alford #4653 (3.James², 1.John¹) b. about 1708, New Kent Co., VA, m. Sarah _____ #4676. Goodrich died Nov 1753, Edgecombe Co., NC.
Births of two daughters are recorded in St. Peter's Parish Register, New Kent Co., VA in 1736 and 1739.
Goodrich witnessed a land sale by his brother Lodwick to Benjamin Haile in Edgecomb Co. in June 1752.
Goodrich's brother, Lodwick Alford, was the administrator of his estate. One date associated with the administration was Nov 20 1753.

Children:

- 24. i Sarah Alford #4677 b. 1733, New Kent Co., VA.
 - 25. ii Lucy Alford #4678 b. Feb 25 1738, New Kent Co., VA.
 - 26. iii Susannah Alford #4679 b. Oct 5 1739, New Kent Co., VA.
13. Lodwick Alford #3085 (3.James², 1.John¹) b. about 1710, New Kent Co., VA, m. (1) Elizabeth _____ #4641, b. Apr 29 1717, New Kent Co., VA, d. May 29 1735, New Kent Co., VA, m. (2) Susanna _____ #3086, b. Sep 25 1718, m. (3) Unknown #4651. Lodwick died 1800, Franklin Co., NC.

Lodwick's presence as well as that of several of his kin is documented in: National Society of The Colonial Dames of America in the State of Virginia, THE PARISH REGISTER OF SAINT PETER'S PARISH, NEW KENT COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1689-1787 (1904; reprint Bowie MD: Heritage Books, 1988)

His birth date is estimated. His birth in VA is assumed.

There has long been a family tradition- reinforced by some DAR records- that Lodwick married a Rebecca Ferrell. Nothing has been found to support this idea. A North Carolina court record lists his wife as Sarah and some believe he married, Sarah the widow of his brother Goodrich. It appears that the daughters of Goodrich were mentioned in Lodwick's will. There is nothing to indicate the mother of any of the children other than William, Elizabeth and Jacob whose births are recorded in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent County, VA.

There is a will and court records to support the death of a Lodwick in Franklin County at about this time. A copy of the will is available on the website. Select him from the list at www.alfordassociation.org/will.html, or go direct to www.alfordassociation.org/wlod792nc.pdf.

This Lodwick is one of the most controversial ancestors we Alford's have. Look for frequent updates on this one as we can get them coordinated.

Notice that he has several sons who we know nothing about. One or more of them might be the ancestor of some of those proved by DNA to have a common ancestor with these folks.

There are some in the family who believe wife Elizabeth was a Cade. If that proves to be the case then her parents were Robert Cade and Susanna Crump. The records do prove that such a person was available for the marriage and from all indications the Alford's and Cades were very close. See also the record on Sussana Cade, the younger sister of Elizabeth, and the next supposed wife of Lodwick. There are some who think wife Susanna was a Hartley but there is no evidence to support the idea. Others think she was a Cade with Lodwick turning to the sister of his late wife, Elizabeth Cade, to help with the raising of young William Alford. See the comments about sister Elizabeth Cade the supposed previous wife of Lodwick.

Children by Elizabeth _____:

27. i William Alford #16653 b. Jul 31 1734, New Kent Co., VA. His birth was recorded in St. Peter's Parish Register.

Children by Unknown:)

+ 30. iv James Alford #4971 b. May 20 1740.

31. v Lodwick Alford #13417 b. about 1742.

Like Jacob and James, he was not listed in his father's will. Some records refer to a Lodwick, Jr.

It seems a good possibility that this Lodwick Alford is the same Lodwick Alford later known as James Lodwick Alford b. 1749 of Wake County. He is the subject of a separate genealogy. See www.alfordassociation.org/GENEALOGY/jam749nc.pdf.

+ 32. vi Julius Alford #5497 b. estimate 1750.

+ 33. vii Mary Alford #7096 b. estimate 1755.

34. viii Warren Alford #7089. He was named as the executor of his father's 1792 will and identified as a son. Tax rolls also prove him as son. He was mentioned in records regarding his father's guardianship.

35. ix Winnie Alford #7090 m. _____ Rogers #7097. Identified as daughter Winny Rogers in her father's 1792 will.

36. x Anslem Alford #7091. Identified as a son in his father's 1792 will.

+ 37. xi Susannah Alford #11816 b. about 1765.

38. xii Goodrich Alford #7093 d. after 1792. Identified as a son in his father's 1792 will.

He was mentioned in records regarding his father's guardianship.

+ 39. xiii Lemuel Alford #7092 b. estimate 1766.

+ 40. xiv Kinchen Alford #3356 b. 1768.

16. Julius Alford #27 (3.James², 1.John¹) b. Sep 1717, St. Peter's Parish, New Kent Co., VA, occupation farmer, m. Lucy _____ #28, d. after 1790, Franklin Co., NC. Julius died 1771, Bute Co., NC. National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in the State of Virginia, THE PARISH REGISTER OF SAINT PETER'S PARISH, NEW KENT COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1680-1787 (1904; reprint, Bowie, MD: Heritage Books, 1988) See it online at http://www.rootsweb.com/~vanewken/stpete_toc.html His will was written July 14, 1768 and proved in the November 1771 session of the Bute County Court. The will was published in AAFA ACTION, Winter 1994 p. 30. See also www.alfordassociation.org/will.html. In his will Julius makes his brother Lodwick Alford, and his son James, the executors of his will. Children are listed as they appear in the will except the females were last. Their birth dates are estimates. Lucy was enumerated in the 1790 census of Franklin Co. NC at which time her household included 2 males under 16 and 4 females. That would make these males born after 1774. Since Julius died 1771 where did these males come from. Who were these males who are not listed in this family record? Were wrong ages given for the 1790 census? Were there young sons who were not listed in the will? In her early family group records the late Mrs. Lewis O.(Tressie) Bowman listed Lucy's maiden name as (Newton) but we were advised later that there was no basis for that.

There are over 100 genealogies spread over eight different DNA groups. Most of the listings show the date of the genealogy file being used and the last time part of it was published in the quarterly.
