

Not knowing what you have. I am at a loss, to know what to send. Hope you will find something of interest here.

I can write but cannot read my writing without my magnifier (20 x) cent carry it in my pocket.

A lot of this could have been shared with the mass

Notes on Alford's 3. 30-2005 2005

of ancient Freemasons

The first lodge of Raleigh was organized by Warren Alford in his home February 11, 1793 under the charter granted by the Grand Lodge Friday Dec 14th 1792.

I checked with Masonic Lodge - no records. Could this be or have reference to

"Odd Fellows" organization?

as we have today?

Warren's Lodge

sorry - can't see to or ~~class~~

my is but takes too long to get someone to type for me.

another note - ^{page} (2) ^{page} 5

#3

2 slaves were hung as well accused of poisoning ~~at~~ to a meeting. A. 1

It seems a gathering of neighbors held with all bringing food.

an important man died after eating & several women and they were all ~~not~~ including Sarah-Ladwell's wife.

could been about
One slave belonged to 1790 an Alford who then lived ~~at~~ of Franklin/Nash County line.

The slaves denied the prisoning but were hanged out way. Most likely 'free prisoners' which they know nothing about.

Later the Alford moved into Nash Co.

I disassembled Nash Co files several weeks ago so cannot name the current Alford.

Believe it was

Drury atford who had on Wash Co line 3

Note on Insanity

#3

Goodrich kept trying to get his father to give him inheritance - Finally father agreed.

Goodrich kept property about 2 months then sold some.

I believe the other children took Lodwick to court and had him declared insane. That was law then - being only way to protect individuals & Lodwick was never insane.

The brothers & sisters did not want to lose their inheritance.

my thinking CP

5

~~another note Lodwick~~

~~was not in issue as some~~ say, in my way of thinking the problem came about when

Gordach Alfred wanted his influence. ~~1945~~ Lodwick finally gave it to him. ~~set~~

~~to~~ Gordach sold it within

2 months, way I remember.

The rest of children had Lodwick thru court - so had to

Insanity

1770s

page ~~1~~
2

That was the period when the first son born to a couple was named after the father's father. The 2nd son would be named after mother's father.

William Alford was the first son of Lodwick and — — Later my researcher found a William Alford living in N.C. to the west of lands of Lodwick. He ^{was} had a son named Lodwick. Doesn't this tie in

And

2 copies of the

I might get to all to find correspondence.

But James of Yastin died before I changed my thinking. His work might be in Historical records records just a guess.

page 7 ~~containing~~ ~~the~~ ~~rest~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~book~~ ~~is~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~file~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Historical~~ ~~Society~~ ~~in~~ ~~Houston~~

If not already ~~containing~~

Historical Society in Houston

You might want to. There was an Alfred. James I ~~of~~ believe. He claimed we were descended from ^{William} ~~William~~ Alfred of England. He asked me to work on same but I had Gilbert report at the time & never followed them. Now I think about it

I believe Houston Alfred report

Historical Society

in Houston might have info from James³ - Alfred who died several years ago.

Lodwick's will of 1792
mentions Willie (William)

I believe, but can't find the copy - what I find is faded so hard to read

Mary and Isaac took care of Lodwick till death as paid hours can't for same.

Isaac's name pronounced

I guess then not as the pronounced today.

If can help any more will try my best to locate the item. Maybe the rust needs to be stored up (in brain) CB

Creeks

Keep in mind there can be

2 creeks same name

such as upper and lower Turkey Creek

There are 2 FlatRock Creeks

One shows on maps north of ImRue - The other on Suss in a red little FlatRock community 1/2 way travels. Red spot indicated this area not the ~~north~~ northern one.

Many folks use the one on map but that is wrong.